

Pasture Walk

CROPP COOPERATIVE
organic and farmer-owned since 1988

Interested in learning more about grazing and organic dairying?

Join us for an upcoming pasture walk in your area! Host Butch Lay transitioned his farm to organic production three years ago. Organic Valley Ruminant Nutritionist Dr. Silvia Abel-Caines will discuss herd health and nutrition. Dr. Peter Krawczel from the University of Tennessee will discuss their new organic dairy forage and grazing research project.

Organic Valley Regional Pool Manager Gerry Cohn will also be available to discuss our cooperative, organic transition and our stable pay price model.

This event is open to anyone that wants to learn more about herd health and grazing systems.

Thursday, March 24

10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Butch Lay Farm

525 Cold Stream Farm Rd
Madisonville, TN 37354

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.
